Ali Naji

DESERT GUIDE ✦

Joanne Post Youssef

YOGA TEACHER ✦

Joanne is an Australian/Lebanese accredited Yoga Teacher Art Therapist and Reiki Practitioner who creates nurturing spaces through movement and mindfulness. Her sessions support you to reconnect with your body, cultivate presence and explore the beauty of the Sahara with greater awareness and ease. Her approach is grounding, accessible and open to all levels of experience.

Raised in a nomadic family in the heart of the Moroccan desert, Ali knows the Sahara as home. With deep roots in this timeless landscape, he brings the desert to life through stories, culture and lived wisdom. He will guide you to hidden gems, golden sunsets and star-filled nights for an unforgettable journey. His presence offers both safety and an authentic connection to desert life.

Claudia Stanghellini

GROUP LEADER ✦

Having travelled extensively in Morocco with Ali, Claudia co-created their first Desert Yoga Tour in 2024. She supports logistics and planning throughout the journey, ensuring the retreat unfolds with ease, care and attention to detail. Her calm presence allows you to relax into the experience from beginning to end.

◆ Traveler's Responsibility

Travellers are responsible for checking all travel documentation upon receipt and notifying us promptly of any discrepancies. It is the traveller's responsibility to ensure passports, visas and any required travel documentation are valid prior to departure.

◆ Insurance

We strongly recommend that your travel insurance provides full coverage for your stay in Morocco. This should include comprehensive health coverage for any medical treatment, hospitalization, or emergency care you may require during your trip. It is also important that the policy includes repatriation coverage.
